Dr. Lance Fuhrer, Principal

After seeing you in several NV productions, I was thrilled to welcome you to Creative Writing. You have a contagious laugh, a creative spirit, and a compassionate heart. You model civic engagement, academic balance, and intellectual curiosity for your peers, and I hope they are learning a fraction of what you have to offer. From your writing to your participation and friendly banter, you welcome others into your inner circle and make friends fast. You model leadership and kindness.
